

CHRIST OUR SAVIOR BAPTIST CHURCH

“Being then God’s offspring, we ought not to think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of man. The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.”

Words and Music by Philip P. Bliss.

Corporate Confession of Sin

Leader: Have mercy on us, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out our transgressions.

Congregation: Wash us thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin! For we know our transgressions, and our sin is ever before us.

Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment.

Hide your face from our sins, and blot out all our iniquities.

Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us

Cast us not away from your presence.

Restore to us the joy of your salvation, and uphold us with a willing spirit.

For you will not delight in sacrifice, or we would give it;

you will not be pleased with a burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit;

a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

Adapted from Psalm 51:1-4, 9-12, 16-17
